

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENTS

December 13, 2009

SECOND COLLECTION – At this time we call our ushers forward for the 2nd collection. The 2nd collection today is for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Envelopes may be found in the pews for your contributions. Thank you!

Attention, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. We have been having some problems. First: if you are not a trained Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion – thanks for your help, but we have a system in place now. You must be trained!! Also, the priority of positions goes to those who are SIGNED IN and have completed updated training. Since we are not distributing the Precious Blood at the moment, we literally need only 6 or 7 ministers (depending if there is an extra priest or deacon). The ordained are the ORDINARY MINISTERS. Everyone else is EXTRAORDINARY. In a typical Sunday Mass, we need 3 ministers on one side (to the right ... by the altar servers) and 3 or 4 ministers to the left (for the new wing). Please make a note of it.

Our archdiocesan evening Misa de Gallo will be held on Thursday, December 17th at 7pm. Fellowship will follow in the Grade School Auditorium. Please join us.

Our 2010 Holy Family Calendar is available in the rectory. Get your copy now.

FOR SUNDAY MORNING MASSES ONLY (6:30, 8:00, 9:30, 11:00)

Today's coffee & Donuts are being served by our Filipino Music Ministry. Please stop by for fellowship.
